

5 THINGS

I have learned

As an entrepreneur this year

SHOOT FOR THE MOON

You can choose to do a wall of fame to look back and celebrate progress or you can choose to look forward focusing on what the future can look like!

Shoot for your dream, dare to be an impact optimist and “remember that if your dreams don’t scare you, there are too small”.

SERVE COURAGEOUS LEADERS

We have a decade to be bold and reinvent the way we do business. But change is never easy. It sure does require courage to shift purpose into practice, embracing impact at the heart of the model - for real.

Love to serve the courageous leaders and CEOs, daring to be at the forefront and lead the change in their sector.

CHOOSE YOUR TRIBE

We go much further with allies and friends.
So grateful to be part of a movement of change makers eager to act for better futures.

People who will challenge, nourish, and help you grow
at the same time.

Remember that behind every successful woman, there is a tribe who has her back!

NEVER STOP LEARNING

A 24/7 mission, a roller coaster of emotions every single day. Whether it is learning from failure, learning by doing, learning with inspiring leaders, educating yourself on the next frontiers.

It is learning every single day.

LEAD WITH HEAD & HEART

When you don't know and you feel vulnerable, you just need to trust yourself, to believe in yourself deep in your heart and follow your guts. It is about aligning with your inner voice.

You can make it happen if you focus on purpose and human magic, building a great team.
